Dear Bill:

Thank you for your letter of January 30. The Select Committee was most pleased to receive its copies of the first National Intelligence Strategy.

The time and effort that you invested in the Strategy is abundantly clear. We are gratified with the enthusiasm with which you have responded to the challenge the Committee presented the Intelligence Community when we levied the requirement for a National Intelligence Strategy last May.

We understand that you will present the Strategy to the Committee on February 19. The Members look forward to listening to your presentation and to working with you during the coming year.

Sincerely,

Dave Durenburger
Chairman
